Change Approved

The change in form of THE NATIONAL GUARD MAGAZINE from the old 6x9 size to the new three column form has been almost universally approved so far as the publishers have been able to ascertain. Scores of letters have come to us from readers all over the United States stating how much better they like the new form. Our representatives in the different parts of the country also write that they have had many verbal approvals

The magazine is bending every effort to give more quality and we are getting heartier co-operation from National Guardsmen all over the country than ever before. We are planning some splendid feature articles which will be appreciated.

get items of a news character together with photographs, special "writeups" and any articles of interest and value to National Guardsmen in general.

As soon as the Pay Bill has once become a law the NATIONAL GUARD MAGAZINE will undertake some other important legislative agitations in connection with the Executive Committee of the National Guard Association of the United States. The agitation for increased federal appropriations and for the Federal Pay Bill have met with such splendid results for the National Guard that this Magazine does not hesitate to undertake further agitation as it becomes opportune.

We hope, however, that our readers will co-operate with us in doing their little part. First, be sure that your subscription is paid for and promptly renewed each year, and second, do not hesitate to write to our advertisers and tell them that you saw their advertisement in THE NATIONAL GUARD MAGAZINE. Remember that the advertiser is making it possible for you to receive the NATIONAL GUARD MAGAZINE at the low rate at which you are getting it each month. It is the support of the advertisers that makes the Magazine possible and our readers should not hesitate at any time to say a good word for the Magazine to them.

In this way and by this co-operation we shall all of us have greater benefits and the Magazine will continue to do the splendid work it has been doing in the
