

Modernized systems

essential to the nation's strategic forces.

The M109A6 Paladin self-propelled howitzer delivers responsive close fire support and the Bradley A2 Operation Desert Storm infantry fighting vehicle provides lethal, survivable support to the Army National Guard maneuver forces. The M88A2 HERCULES Improved Recovery Vehicle brings essential, safe tank recovery capability under severe battlefield condition. United Defense—the National Guard's modernization partner.

Features

22 Mixed Bag

President Bush's FY 2003 budget contains record National Guard amounts. But funding shortfalls remain, the figures say little about future roles and a sluggish economy may prevent congressional help.

26 Tough Choices

Homeland security is as popular today in state houses around the country as it is in the White House. The problem is paying for it.

30 Conversations

The chairmen of the House and Senate Arms Services committees provide their thoughts on defense issues in the post-Sept. 11 world.

34 Dual Mission

Joe Wilson, from South Carolina's 2nd Congressional District, is the newest House member. He is also an Army National Guard colonel.

36 The State of the Army and Air National Guard

The NGAUS vice president's for Army and Air give their perspectives.

42 NGAUS FY 2003 Legislative Priorities

58 State and Congressional Guides

88 Sisters in Arms

The National Guard was men-only for more than 300 of its 365-year history. Then necessity and a few brave pioneers intervened.

92 Golden Performance

From providing security to winning medals, National Guardsmen shined brightly at the Winter Olympics at Salt Lake City in February.

A Double Issue? We were forced to alter our schedule after the sudden loss of a vendor critical to the printing process. We have since shifted to a new procedure—a one-stop, digital process that should be more efficient in the long run. Unfortunately, there has been an adjustment period. The magazine will resume its regular schedule in May.
