Money for Maneuvers Finally Appropriated

House Passes Joint Resolution Appropriating a Million, Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars on July 1st—Senate Promptly Concur and the Program Now Goes Forward

By WILLIAM WOLFFE SMITH.

FOLLOWING the vote of the Army appropriation bill, which was passed by the National Guard, particular attention was given to the fact that it contained general legislation in aid of the Regular Army which would be of considerable use to the Regular Army to participate with the National Guard in the various campaigns, and that the Army appropriations would be of great service to the National Guard for the purpose of the maneuvers. This appropriation was not made solely for the use of the National Guard, but was made up of $2,567,500, and is made up of the following items:

<table>
<tr>

The immense importance of the training of the militiamen and the need of having the best men in the service have been emphasized. The committee which was appointed last year by the Senate to examine the question of the appropriations for the past year has been asked to report upon the question of the appropriations for the coming year. It is expected that the committee will report on this subject at an early date.

When the House of Representatives meets on Monday, July 1st, the consideration of the appropriation bill will be given. The Senate will probably take up the bill on the same day. The appropriations for the coming year will be considered in detail, and the committee will report on the question of the appropriations for the coming year.

The House and the Senate have both been requested to report on the question of the appropriations for the coming year, and the committee will probably report on the question of the appropriations for the coming year.
