NEW YORK: 150 Nassau St.

Long and High Sts., COLUMBUS, O.

RALPH OSBORN, MIDSHIPMAN AT ANNAPOLIS

A story of Annapolis life. By LIEUTENANT COMMANDER EDWARD L. BEACH. Life at Annapolis, our naval college, is the first step in the naval officer's career and is particularly interesting. The incidents presented in the volume and the coloring used in painting the pictures of naval academy life are true in every essential, and the volume gives an accurate, interesting and altogether enjoyable story of just what the naval officer's life really is during his apprenticeship days. Fully illustrated, 366 pages, cloth $1.50.

WITH PERRY ON LAKE ERIE

A tale of 1812. By JAMES OTIS. The author keeps close to authentic history as he weaves his thrilling web of adventure. Boys will learn history, patriotism and manliness from this stirring tale. Illustrated, 307 pages, cloth $1.50.

THRILLING DAYS IN ARMY LIFE

By GENERAL GEORGE A. FORSYTH. This volume includes "A Frontier Fight," "An Apache Raid," "The Closing Scenes at Appomattox Court House," and a vivid account of Sheridan's Ride, which General Forsyth shared with his great leader. Illustrated, post 8vo. $1.50.

THE EXPEDITION TO THE PHILIPPINES

By FRANK D. MILLET. The story of the voyage and of the American Army in the Philippines, as Mr. Millet tells it, is one of the most stirring narratives the war has inspired. Illustrated from photographs, xi, 275 pages, crown 8vo. cloth $2.50.

THE FRANCO-GERMAN WAR OF 1870-'71

By GRAF VON HELMUTH MOLTKE. This book will ever remain as the standard one upon this great war. Its modesty is unsurpassed, and the story is as concisely told as if it were a series of official reports. 432 pages, portrait, map, 8vo. $3.00.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA

By CAPTAIN A. T. MAHAN, U. S. N. A narrative of the Anglo-Boer war. One of the best and most comprehensive accounts of the war in the Transvaal, with a frontispiece in color by Remington. 473 illustrations and 18 full-page color drawings. 208 pages, illustrated, 11 1/4 x 17 1/4 inches, $5.00.

THE WAR WITH SPAIN

Out of all the innumerable books which were called forth by the war, this is one of the most comprehensive and the one that deserves a place in every American home as the lasting record of the war. The book contains over 80 full-page drawings by R. F. Zogbaum, T. de Thulstrup, Carlton T. Chapman and Howard Chandler Christy, besides photographs. Profusely illustrated. 276 pages, crown 8vo. $2.50.

THE SCHOOL OF THE ARMY IN GERMANY AND FRANCE

With a diary of siege life at Versailles. By W. B. HAZEN. A thorough review of the causes which led to the success of the Germans and the humiliation of the French in the great war which ended in the capitulation of Paris. 408 pages, crown 8vo. $2.50.

THE GREAT REBELLION

By JOHN MINOR BORTS. The secret history of the Rebellion for thirty years before it broke out. 492 pages, 12mo. $2.50.

THE SPANISH WAR

By RUSSELL A. ALGER. This history gives an inside view of many much-discussed phases of the controversy, especially the conduct of the War Department during Secretary Alger's incumbency, the Miles-Alger difficulty, the beef supply investigation, etc. Much information is given which has not heretofore been published, and the book is an important contribution to the history of the war. Portrait and maps, xiv, 466 pages, 8vo. $2.50 net.

CAUSES OF THE CIVIL WAR

By FRENCH ENSOR CHADWICK, U. S. N. (recent president of the Naval War College). The short period of 1850 to 1861 brought to a focus all the lines of opposing movements that had been growing in intensity since the formation of the national government, until, directed by events, they burst into flame on Fort Sumter. Admiral Chadwick strives carefully to point out the intrinsic differences between North and South. He pictures the effect of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the Dred Scott Decision, the John Brown Raid; the weakness of Buchanan, and presents a just and noble appreciation of Lincoln. Portrait and maps, xiv, 372 pages, 8vo. $2.00 net.

PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR IN THE PHILIPPINES

Edited by MARRION WILCOX, B.A., LL.B. The volumes include contributions from commanding officers of the Army and Navy, and from Philippine correspondents of the Harper and other periodicals. It is an unbiased and unprejudiced statement of the facts on both sides. The essentials in the history of the archipelago are given, from Magellan's discovery, in 1521, practically to date of going to press. Folio $12.00.

PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR WITH SPAIN

With an introduction by MAJOR GENERAL NELSON A. MILES, commanding United States Army. General Miles says in his introduction: "It would be difficult to select a more brilliant corps of gifted artists and correspondents than have contributed to these pages. Each went with a commander on the bridge, or with a leader in the front rank, and into the heat of action with heroic valor, never flinching from danger when duty called. Folio $12.00.
