PICTURES FOR ARMOY AND DEN

FREDLAND — Maine

DEFENCE OF CHAMIGNY — Dijon

We have reproduced from photographs of the original paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Fine Arts, New York City, these two stirring battle scenes, which are printed on the finest of artists’ plate paper in duotone ink. They are just the thing for armory or den. We send them flat, postpaid, and ready for framing or mounting for 25 cents each.

A LETTER FROM HOME—We have reproduced in half-tones, printed with duotone, this exceedingly fine photograph, ready in half size, utterly perfect. Send 25 cents in stamps.

"FAP"—This beautiful poem (Taaff) by Charles S. Anderson, printed on artist board and mounted, ready for framing, $2.50 postpaid to any address for 35 cents.

THE EDWARD T. MILLER CO. - - - COLUMBUS, OHIO.

A Different Story

"IT’S AWFULY EXCITING!"

WILL be told, from the time honored one that your Guard Duty has been lax, if you supply your men now, before you go to camp, each with a copy of

McQUIGG’S SENTINEL’S HANDBOOK, which sets forth in simple, concise language what a sentinel ought to DO and WHEN and HOW to do it.

PRICE—Single copies, prepaid, 25 cents; in lots of 50 or more, prepaid, 15 cents each.

The Edward T. Miller Company
COLUMBUS, OHIO.

THE NATIONAL GUARD MAGAZINE
Published by THE EDWARD T. MILLER COMPANY, 156-174 East Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio.

Colonel Edward T. Miller, President; and General Manager; J. L. Beekman, Secretary and Treasurer.

DIRECTORY OF EDITORIAL AND BUSINESS STAFFS:

Washington, D. C., Bureau, Money Building—William Wolf Smith, Correspondent; Naval Militia Department—Lieutenant F. C. Gaines, Editor.

Associate Editors—Brotherhood (General Agents) of Philadelphia (General Members) F. J. K. Reamer, of Columbus; Regular Members W. E. Sisson, of Oregon; Colonel C. M. English, of South Dakota; Major E. A. Henson, of Wisconsin; Captain C. E. Dillon, of Delaware; Major Edward B. Bills, of Michigan.

Note: Authors and correspondents are responsible for all opinions expressed in their articles and are not responsible for views of the Editor.

CONTENTS FOR MAY

NEW MEXICOhoot THE PACE IN ARMOY BUILDINGS, by H. B. HENRI.

THE PAY BILL.

LETTERS FROM SUBSIDIARY MAIL...

FIRST NATIONAL INDOOR MATCH.

OFFICERS SCHOOLS AT HOME AND IN OFFICERS CAMP OF INSTRUCTION, by Capt. Robert D. Woodside.

THIRTY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD EXHIBIT.

ONE WAY TO GET RECRUITS.

MAINTAINING MILITARY DIGNITY AND PROFICIENCY, by Lieut.

J. H. Huntington.

THE LUCK OF OUR ARTILLERY OFFICER, by Major.

Howard Harris Thomas.

MILITIA OFFICERS AT THE TEXAS CAMP, by William Wolf Smith.

ILLINOIS EFFICIENT SIGNAL CORPS, by W. C. Gelone.

LETTERS FROM READERS.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER, by William Wolf Smith.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

THE NAVAL MILITIA.

WHAT THE STATES ARE DOING.

This magazine is published on the 15th day of each month preceding month of issue. All subscriptions must be in advance at the headquarters. All subscribers of the National Guard Magazine, Ohio, under Act of Congress March 3, 1875, Subscriptions (in advance) Single Copy, 10 cents; One Year, $1.00; Two Years, $2.00; Five Years, $5.00. Late Subscriptions, the receipt of which by the post office is too late, will be charged with the expiration date preceding the receipt date. Subscribers to the National Guard Magazine will be charged with the expiration date preceding the receipt date.

Advertising rates furnished on application.