No. 154.

A DJUTANT General Thomas J. Stewart of Harrisburg, who is well acquainted with the merits of Herman's U. S. Army Shoes, recently wrote the War Department regarding the organized militia of Pennsylvania as follows: "Requested that if possible the shoes as per above list of sizes, be furnished from the shoes made by Herman & Co."

This spring we have received competitive contracts for 317,000 pairs for the War and Navy Departments of United States government

These contracts amount to almost exactly $1,000,000 and are the finest endorsement of Herman material and Herman quality that it is possible to imagine.

No. 154. This is our combination Garrison and Marching Shoe. Study the comfort-giving lines and the snappy effect of the workmanship. This new style combines the best outdoor features of the army marching and the army garrison shoes. Note the roominess of the broad toe, the protection of the half bellows tongue and the perfect style of the finish. No. 154 is made of Shrewsbury calf leather from imported Paris veals, oil tanned for army purposes. The upper is as near waterproof as leather can be. It has an easy, pliable inner sole, a Texas unsoured oak sole and a box toe. It is solid leather throughout and comes in sizes 5 to 11, in widths C, D, E and EE, and is sold in company lots at the wholesale price of $3.25 per pair.

No. 50.
