By Capt. R. H. Beecham. This is a graphic and accurately written book of moderate size, suitable to the student, the National Guardsman or civilian. $1.75 net.

GETTYSBURG

By Jesse Bowman Young. Published this year. The writer participated in the great battle and afterward lived at Gettysburg where he gathered a wonderful fund of anecdotes and incidents. $2.00.

THE CIVIL WAR, THE

By Russell A. Alger. An inside history of many much-discussed phases of the controversy, especially in the conduct of the War Department during Secretary Alger's incumbency, the Miles-Alger difficulty, the beef supply investigation, etc. Much information is given which is not elsewhere published, and the book is an important contribution to the history of the war. Portrait and maps xiv, 466 pages, 8vo, $2.50 net.

GENERAL OFFICERS OF THE CONFEDERATE ARMY

Compiled by Gen. Marcus J. Wright. Size, 5 x 7 1/2. $1.50 net, postage 15c.

SAVING THE REPUBLIC

Memoirs of Civil and Military Life by Nelson A. Miles, Lieutenant General, U. S. A. Both an addition to history and a colorful, stirring story of a man's struggles and responsibilities. The part of the story dealing with the Civil War is only second in importance to such memoirs as those of Grant and Sherman. General Miles took part in many of its bloodiest battles. He was four times wounded, twice almost fatally. The narrative continues with General Miles' western experiences with the Indians. Illustrated. Crown octavo. Cloth, $2.00 net.

GRANT'S CAMPAIGNS, THE WILDERNESS AND COLD HARBOR

By First Lieut. C. F. Atkinson, V. B. Royal Fusiliers. Demy 8vo, 24 maps and plans. $2.00.

MILITARY HYGIENE

By Maj. P. M. Ashburn. A well-written and readable handbook, primarily for the use of line officers. There is much interesting and valuable information, and many helpful suggestions for the Regular, the average citizen, and the Volunteer Militia. Major Ashburn's work has the approval of the Surgeon General of the United States Army. 12mo. $1.50.

METHODS OF TEACHING PATRIOTISM IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

By Col. G. T. Balch. 8vo. Cloth, $1.00.

MUSKETRY TRAINING

By Capt. J. N. Pickering, U. S. A., Instructor at the School of Musketry. Several of the chapters are standard lectures used in the instruction of classes. The book contains the greater part of the course at the school. It has 22 terse chapters, is attractively bound in cloth, compactly made up, and of convenient pocket size. Both officers and enlisted men will find it interesting and instructive. Single copy, $1.50. In lots of a dozen or more, $15.00 per dozen.
