Presenting...

THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF

To the 76th General Conference of the National Guard Ass'n of the United States, President Eisenhower sent the following letter to be read by Wyoming's Gov. Millard L. Simpson, and greetings conveyed by the Hon Charles F. Fussimann, Under Secretary of the Army. We are proud to present both.

********

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
October 6, 1956

TO THE NATIONAL GUARD CONFERENCE:

To the National Guard Conference meeting in Spokane, I send greetings.

In your service and loyalty to the nation, you are in the first line of our defense. Your numbers and training and morale are of vital concern to me. I shall continue to work for a strong National Guard with standards of military proficiency and readiness essential to the defense of America. In this, I know I can count on the support of every loyal Guardsman.

Wish you a splendid Conference and all success in developing new plans to implement the mission of the National Guard.

Dwight D. Eisenhower

* * *

Please extend my warmest greetings and best wishes to my old friends and comrades-in-arms associated with the 76th General Conference of the National Guard Association of the United States and read them this personal message.

Your loyal service in the wars of the Republic is recorded in history. I have keenest memories of the valor and devotion of National Guard Divisions and other units that fought under my command in Europe and Africa from Normandy to the Elbe.

The dual status of the National Guard whereby it serves the States in time of peace and the Republic in time of national emergency, exemplifies that sound traditional relationship between the States and the Federal Government, unique with our governmental system. This historic concept should be ever strengthened, and never weakened.

As Commander-in-Chief I subscribe fully to the statutory declaration that now and in the future we must maintain and assure the strength and organization of the National Guard as an integral part of the first line of defense of the nation, to the end that your organizations shall be ready to discharge their historic role at the very outset of any national emergency.

dear guardsmen:

To those who have the National Guard in their blood, it's always a pleasure to note the increasing number of objective, well-written, factual articles about the Guard, in publications that receive wide circulation in the right places.

For 10 years, we folks at NGAUS HQ and those in NGB, have been working at National level to build contacts and make available to writers and others a wealth of solid information concerning the Guard's history, evolution, and accomplishments.

We're prompted to mention it by the recent appearance of two very worthwhile articles.

First came a "Special Report" on "The National Guard: Our Really Reservy Reserve," by Bruce Jacobs, an Army Rese officer, in the Aug. and Sep. issue of "Army," official publication of the Ass'n of the US Army. As NGAUS President, Maj Gen E. A. Walsh, wrote the Editors: "The special report will, I hope, assist materially in developing...a greater knowledge and understanding of the National Guard, and in dispelling many of the highly distorted and inaccurate impressions of the National Guard which have persisted for years and which, unfortunately, have served to undermine the act of March 1916, and to impede its growth and development.

And we're pleased to have had a hand in supplying a mass of background data which Karl Hess ably distilled down into an effective article: "The War Against Our National Guard," in the Nov. issue of "American Mercury." "Thank you to generous and prompt cooperation of the "American Mercury."" Circulation Dept. 1,500 copies were on tap forDupes and visitors to the Ass'n's Spokane Conference—and they were gobbled-up quickly.

Backed-up by his background in the Guard's work at State and hometown level, the Guard is gaining the fullest public understanding it ever has enjoyed.

THE STAFF

contents

Summary from Spokane... 2
"On the Way" in China... 6
Rs for ROPA... 8
Washington Report... 17
This Is Where We Stand... 20
World War Two's Forgotten Weapon... 25
Quote and Unquote... 26
Deluge of Dollars Boosts Building Fund... 32
Pentagon Paragraphs... 35
Technical and Tactical... 38
Pounding the Guard... 40
Sound Off... 47
The Bathing Averages... 48

OUR COVER

Down Boston's historic Park St and the post-traditional-occurt Boston Common, the Colors lead Mass' 104 Inf Regt in Boston's greatest military parade since the "Yankee" Div was welcomed home from WW I. Some 17,500 officers and men of the 28 "Yankee" Div, the 104 AAA Brg, the 182 RCT, and others strode the mile-long route to the strains of 18 military bands and the roar of AGN jet fighters overhead, commemorating the 19th anniversary of the Massachusetts National Guard's post-WW II reorganization. (MassANG Photo)