

ENDORSED BY THE ADJUTANTS GENERAL

THIRD AND REVISED EDITION OF

A Military Primer

By MARSHALL and SIMONDS

Meets with instant favor among the heads of the State Military Department

READ WHAT THEY SAY

realize that it is a primer, and not a book, and being a primer, is suited to varied abilities of officers of the National Guard, some of whom are quite well versed in map reading, but the majority of whom need a primer with which to start their study."

GENERAL THOMAS J. STEWART,
Adjutant General, Pa., and President of the National Guard Association of the U. S.

"I shall supply the organizations of this State with the book, but owing to shortage of State funds, it will be necessary for me to obtain this by requisition upon the War Department as a charge against the state's appropriation under Section 1661."

FRED LLEWELLYN,
Adjutant General, Washington.

"From the cursory examination which I have been able to give it, I should think this book would prove a very valuable addition to the text books which we now have on the subject of 'Minor Tactics.' I shall be pleased to purchase a limited number of copies in order to give it wide distribution throughout the troops."

J. CLIFORT R. FOSTER,
Adjutant General, Florida.

"From what I can see it is a very valuable edition to Military Organizations."
J. TANDY ELLIS,
Acting Adjutant General, Ky.

"I regard it as a valuable publication, and should be in the library of every officer of the Organized Militia."

W. F. SADLER, JR.,
The Adjutant General, New Jersey.

"A personal examination shows it to be a book which should be of great value to both the officer and enlisted man of the Organized Militia, for the reason that it deals with matters in a plain and concise manner."

JOHN B. O'MEARA,
The Adjutant General, Mo.

"As a rule, the aspiring military student has no time for schools. To him the Military Primer is a well blazed way on which he may progress without bewilderment, with no embarrassing delays, until he understands those things which are indispensable to successful field service. The Military Primer is both teacher and text book. It talks to you and you 'sabe.' In its third edition it has improved in many ways."

B. L. BARGAR,
Colonel 4th Ohio Infantry.

"A third edition of 'A Military Primer' has just come from the press of The Edward T. Miller Company, Columbus, Ohio. The authors are Major Francis C. Marshall, Second Cavalry, U. S. A., and Captain George S. Simonds, Twenty-second Infantry, U. S. A., who originally designed it 'to teach the cadets of the Military Academy at the very beginning of their military education the objects of the profession for which they are preparing themselves, to show them the reason for the discipline to which they are subjected, and to define some of the independent duties of subaltern officers in time of war in connection with the service of security and information.' When first published in 1907 a fair edition was quickly exhausted and a second printing of ten thousand copies in 1908 proved such a mine of information for National Guard officers that a third edition, with considerable new matter added, is now ready. A feature of this edition is the up-to-date map work, fine specimens of cartography, linen mounted, accompanying the volume, in a convenient pocket."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Sent Post Paid for $2.15 to any part of the U. S. or drawn by Governor's Requisition on War Department.

The Edward T. Miller Company

Columbus, Ohio

THE ONLY PERIODICAL OF NATIONAL CIRCULATION FOR "OUR SERVICE"

THE NATIONAL GUARD MAGAZINE

For Troops of All the States

Contents

	Page
The Washington Meetings, By Lieut. Wilmarth Brown, Washington Correspondent	37
Proposed Militia Legislation.....	39
Annual Report of the Chief of Division of Militia Affairs..	45
Secretary of War Garrison's Attitude.....	47
Annual Meeting of the Directors of the N. R. A.....	48
Current Events and Comment.....	50
Talks by the "Old Man".....	52
What the States Are Doing.....	54

$1.00 THE YEAR

FEBRUARY, 1914

10 CENTS THE COPY

VOL. XI.—REACHES 120,000 MEN IN EVERY ORGANIZATION OF THE NATIONAL GUARD—No. 2