

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 13, 1966

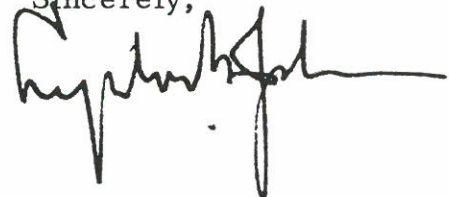

Dear General Cantwell:

I want to thank you and all the members of the National Guard across the country for the great blood drive you are conducting.

I can think of no other effort which would as meaningfully express your support for our brave men whose struggle in Viet-Nam has such importance for all of us.

With gratitude and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Major General James F. Cantwell
President
National Guard Association of the United States

CONTENTS

The sky over Viet Nam rains "paper bullets" with increasing effect on Viet Cong and North Viet Nameese soldiers.

- PSYOPS: A BLOODLESS WEAPON 2
Psychological warfare is playing an increasingly effective part, claim U. S. experts, in bringing Viet Cong and North Viet Nameese soldiers into Government hands as defectors.
- THE FRENCH RESERVE 10
Another in our series of articles on the Reserve Forces of other nations.
- TIME OUT FOR A BIT OF WAR 22
A Guardsman visits far places on one of the "commuter runs" to Southeast Asia, that sees the Air Guard's MAC crews alternating between the humdrum of peacetime life and hearing the zing of bullets in a combat zone.
- ARIZONA IN AUTUMN 26
Not "out where the West begins" but smack dab in the middle of it, will be Guardsmen and their ladies who attend the 88th General Conference of the National Guard Assn. of the U. S.
- THE UNSCHEDULED ASTRONAUTS . . .
OR: HOW NOT TO WORK AMMO 28
Some life- and limb-saving tips from an old hand in the ammunition business.
