IN THE FINAL ANALYSIS

The NGAUS Executive Council Resolution Opposing the Lifting of the Ban on Homosexuals in the Military

"Whereas, Homosexuals in the military is a very complicated and emotional issue; now "

"Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the National Guard Association of the United States (NGAUS) Executive Council, which states the NGAUS does not support lifting the ban."

I always end up being asked my personal views as well as those of the Association. In regard to the Association, I find very few people who support lifting the ban and a great many who oppose it. Let me share with you my personal feelings.

The sexual activities of any individual have always, in my background, been a personal and very sensitive matter. Society, over the years, has become much more focused on sex as publicatio

The NGAUS Executive Council Resolution Opposing the Lifting of the Ban on Homosexuals in the Military

The Guard As a Forward Presence?

Could the future of U.S. forward presence in Europe and other places around the world rest on the rundown and roundup concepts? According to COL L.J. Fredrickson the Guard as a forward presence is logical, simple and cost-effective.

"To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces."

FEATURES

Grounded and Flying to Perfection

The AFR National Guard has decided it is going to take full advantage of personal computers and software applications to create its own trainer/simulator for F-16 and F-15 Guard pilots nationwide. The Part Task Trainer will save lives and dollars.

The Guard As a Forward Presence?

Could the future of U.S. forward presence in Europe and other places around the world rest on the rundown and roundup concepts? According to COL L.J. Fredrickson the Guard as a forward presence is logical, simple and cost-effective.

RCAS Is A Readiness Multiplier for Everyone

The listing of the Reserve Component Automation System (RCAS) is over and the folding has begun. Seen as the best method to connect units across the nation with local area networks, RCAS will move the Army Guard and Army Reserve into the 21st century.

Dedication To a Dedicated Guardsman

In honor of John B. Conaway, chief of the National Guard Bureau, and MG James Ryan, the adjutant general of Tennessee, the National Guard Professional Education Center honored the man who created the only Army Guard school system.

Tennessee Takes First In Medevac

The Tennessee Army Guard accepted the first state-offered U.S. Army DOD "Bolster" Black Hawk medical helicopter from Georgia. Although the city of Chattanooga hailed the event as a credit to Congresswoman and aid to her Chattanooga unit. It's just the beginning as the Guard as a forward presence is logical, simple and cost-effective.

DEPARTMENTS

Cover

The 32d Infantry Brigade (Separate), Wisconsin Army Guard, has spent several annual training periods in Germany practicing its wartime mission. Why not use Guard combat units as U.S. forward presence in Europe to reduce defense costs? WARG photo. Design, Johnson Design Group.

President's Message

Washington Tie-Line

Views From The Field

Capital Focus

Newsbreaks

Leading Edge

People

Posting the Guard

Notebook

PUBLICATION STAFF

MG Robert F. Ensign Jr., (Ret.)

CPT Victor Dubina (ret.)

Director of Communications

CPT Pamela A. Kane

Executive Editor

Ms. Belinda L. Reilly

Production Manager

2LT Carol Thompson

Editorial Assistant Editor

Maj R. Glenn Ross

Advertising Sales

Ms. M. Catherine Privat

Controller

NATIONAL GUARD, June 1993. The National Guard Magazine (ISSN 1035-4625) is published monthly, by the Public Affairs Office of the United States Army National Guard. RCAS is over and the folding has begun. Seen as the best method to connect units across the nation with local area networks, RCAS will move the Army Guard and Army Reserve into the 21st century.

Cover:

The 32d Infantry Brigade (Separate), Wisconsin Army Guard, has spent several annual training periods in Germany practicing its wartime mission. Why not use Guard combat units as U.S. forward presence in Europe to reduce defense costs? WARG photo. Design, Johnson Design Group.

President's Message

Washington Tie-Line

Views From The Field

Capital Focus

Newsbreaks

Leading Edge

People

Posting the Guard

Notebook

PUBLICATION STAFF

MG Robert F. Ensign Jr., (Ret.)

CPT Victor Dubina (ret.)

Director of Communications

CPT Pamela A. Kane

Executive Editor

Ms. Belinda L. Reilly

Production Manager

2LT Carol Thompson

Editorial Assistant Editor

Maj R. Glenn Ross

Advertising Sales

Ms. M. Catherine Privat

Controller

NATIONAL GUARD, June 1993. The National Guard Magazine (ISSN 1035-4625) is published monthly, by the Public Affairs Office of the United States Army National Guard. PUBLICATION STAFF

Cover:

The 32d Infantry Brigade (Separate), Wisconsin Army Guard, has spent several annual training periods in Germany practicing its wartime mission. Why not use Guard combat units as U.S. forward presence in Europe to reduce defense costs? WARG photo. Design, Johnson Design Group.