The simple bottom line is that history has shown, and time again, that when we cut our military too much, we pay for it in blood and loss of lives. The best way to maintain peace is to keep our military as strong as possible to ensure the peace.

Senator Bond said.

Our old friend Representative "Scary" Montgomery echoed his concerns on the House side. He was quoted as saying that the cuts to defense may have gone too far. "The simple bottom line is that we must not cut our military too much, and if we do, we cannot keep our enemies out of our airspace."
