Features

24 Historic Response
More than 50,000 National Guardsmen responded to Katrina in a spontaneous movement of personnel involving every state and territory. Never have so many Guardsmen traveled so far, so fast and from so many locations to respond to a natural disaster. Unfortunately, the details of the Guard response have been lost in the "blame game."

35 Island Session
The Pacific wasn’t simply a backdrop for last month’s 127th General Conference. After three days of presentations by senior military officials and frontline troops, the tropical scenery did offer a nice retreat from conference business. Hawai’i, however, was also a strategic setting to look at the potential conflicts to come.

40 Closing Arguments
The Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) Commission has spoken and several Air National Guard flying units remain on the list. With state lawsuits still being considered, the fight may not be over. But it is in the late rounds, which forces adjutants general nationwide to prepare for the changes the BRAC recommendations may bring.

Departments

Starting Point ................................................................. 4
Mail Call ................................................................. 10
Washington Update .................................................. 12
Sound Bites ............................................................... 14
Newsbreaks ................................................................. 16
State Roundup ............................................................ 44
Industry Notes ............................................................. 50
Association News ......................................................... 52

ON THE COVER: An Alabama Army Guardsman takes Tara Solomon from her mother, Iris Laste, as they are evacuated from New Orleans. —APWIDE